Kid McCoy wrestled the middle-weight championship from Dan Creedon in a fifteen round bout at Jersey City on the evening of the 15th inst.

A general clamor for corn huskers goes up all over the west from the Solomon to the Platte. Farmers are paying five cents a bushel for men and teams at Norcatur.

The spoilsmen in congress are trying to knock out the civil service, but we venture to predict that they are reckoning without their host, and that this splendid piece of Republican legislation will stand.

It appears that the strained situation in the far east will be settled by a general partition of the Chinese empire. It seems a matter of regret that that ancient dynasty should have to fall, but as Lowell says, "Civilization does get for'ad somehow upon a powder cart."

We never argue politics from the standpoint of a "principal" because "there are others" who have as much right to their opinions as we have to ours and we have no monopoly of the business. To respect their rights and opinions is our "principle." See the point, Oleoxon?

Yule-tide is with us once again, and every man, woman and child on earth who has a normal liver and a good digestion should make an effort to see that friends and neighbors enjoy the pleasures of the season. If there is some fellow who has served you a dirty trick and that has't spoken to you for six months, shake hands with him and wish him a Merry Christmas: That is the proper way to celebrate the memory of Him who came to bring peace on earth, good will to men.

We are hungry. We hanker for the news. We want a collector and reporter of news items in every school district in the county. We have the space and material and the time to set your items. Send them in. Send us school reports, marriage notices, deaths, births, parties, arrivals and departures, real estate and stock sales with names, dates and values. The people of each neighborhood want to know what is going on in other parts of the county. You can help us to gather and disseminate reliable and interesting information. When in town call and see us and give us the news. Call and let us fit you out with a supply of reporter's stationery gratis.

It is to be hoped that William Jennings Bryan will learn some things during his present sojourn in Mexico. For instance, the moment he plunks out one of Uncle Sam's gold standard dollars he will receive in exchange two dollars and four cents of Mexican currency. Again he will notice that though there are gold mines there he will find that their gold currency is conspicuous for its absence. We trust also that between his hob-nobs with President Diaz he will find time to study the prosperity of the agricultural classes as they live in their adobe huts and plow their little patches, by hitching themselves to the traces. We shall await with becoming patience the result of his investigations, and it may be that we will then be ready to Mexicanize our currency.

General A. B. Campbell committed suicide in a Chicago hotel last Monday night. He was at one time a prominent figure in Kansas politics, having served as chaplain of the state penitentiary under Governor St. John and as adjutant general by appointment of Governor Martin. He was also adjutant general of the G. A. R. department of Kansas, and a leader in the temperance movement, which followed his conversion to its principles by the noted temperance lecturer, Luther Benson. Campbell was a lawyer, but formerly a minister of the Christian or "Campbellite" church which was founded by his uncle, Alexander Campbell. Before taking his life he wrote a letter stating that his rash act was the result of grief for his wife and only son, recently deceased, and inability to escape from the stories of insanity which followed him from place to place.

E. R. Goodale, of Adair, was a Wa-Keeneey visitor on Tuesday.

Good Morning! A merry Christmas to all.

MATRIMONIAL.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kluckade last Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Barbara, was united in marriage to Mr. Gustave Ebeling, Rev. W. R. Allen officiating. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. The young couple left on the evening train for a trip to Kansas City and other eastern points. The bride is one of our most popular young ladies and has a host of friends. The groom is employed as an engineer on the U. P. R. R. and is popular with all. With their many friends we extend congratulations. —Ellis Review-Headlight.

The groom is the son of our fellow citizen, John Ebeling, of Coliery, and is an exemplary young man, fully deserving of the words of commendation extended by our contemporary. We bespeak for this estimable couple a long life of success and happiness together.

OBITUARY.

Died—December 11, 1897, of catarrhal fever—Charles William Sweet, infant son of George and Effie Sweet, of Denver, Colo. The remains were brought to Trego county for interment.

Our darling babe has gone to rest. He sweetly sleeps on the Saviour's breast. His little body from pain is free. He has put on immortality.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kitto, of Winnemucca, Nevada, stopped off in Wa-Keeneey, Wednesday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Henkel and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gibson. Mrs. Kitto was formerly Miss Maud Emig of this place. Mr. Kitto is agent for the Central Pacific at Winnemucca. They intend visiting Kansas City, Chicago, Buffalo, New York City, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, and other places of interest in the East before returning home.

The old implement warehouse which stood opposite L. Schmidt's blacksmith shop was purchased by F. H. Burnham and moved to his place in the east part of town last Tuesday. Marshall brothers did the work.

E. M. Wagoner and Louis Christenson, of Riverside, were detained in Wa-Keeneey last Saturday night on account of the snow storm.

A beautiful snow visited this section Sunday.
Mrs. McNaughton is visiting relatives in Kansas City, Mo.
Wm. Lutz is working for Charles Falkers south of Wa-Keeneey.
Will Caskey and Jack Buchanan are helping Ben Rich put up ice.
R. H. Burns bought a load of corn of Bruce Furbeck last week.
School is progressing nicely under the careful teaching of Frank Woodward in this district.
J. C. Balcom has fenced the northwest quarter of 35 for pasture for his stock.
Last Friday night a number of the friends gathered at the home of Bruce Furbeck and enjoyed themselves in a social dance. At 11 o'clock the table was spread and all partook of a beautiful oyster supper, after which they stepped the light fantastic till 3 o'clock in the morning, when all departed for home feeling very thankful to Mr. and Mrs. Furbeck for their generous hospitality.

Northwest Saline News.

More snow.
Will Walsh is putting up ice this week.
Skating is the order of the day now. One of our boys fell and cracked six inch ice on one of the ponds. He says he does not know whether it hurt him or the ice most.
Great preparations are being made for Xmas, and the children are looking forward and counting the days till Old Santa will be here.
Hugh Elliott has a very sore hand. Frank Ivan is doing his work.
Mr. Wallis sold some of his fine poultry to Wm. Bower the first of the week.

John Ashcroft is threshing for E. Cass this week.

James Tidball trapped another coyote last Thursday night, and Walter Atkin caught one Saturday night. By the way the coyotes are being snared we think the poultry business will be more profitable next year.

This is a fine time for the hunters to track rabbits and wolves.
Hugh Elliott sold some of his fat hogs to George Baker.

B. Kessler has been trading hogs for barley. Barney is all right when it comes to a trade.

We hear some of our young folks saying: "Why don't they have a literary at Coliery?" And our only answer is, "Oh, Coliery is dead."

Our young ladies wish more of the young men had sleighs to track the snow with.

Miss Effie Atkin was seen on the streets of Coliery last Saturday buying toys for the boys.

S. T. H. Baird, of the east side, was doing business with our county officials last Monday.

A merry Christmas to all.
Now is the time for sleigh riding.
A good many are preparing to put up ice.
The postoffice is now in its new and elegant quarters. C. Hickman as agent for Uncle Sam looks quite well dealing out letters to the young ladies.
Norman Redman and wife buried their infant in the Coliery cemetery, Tuesday.
Barnett Kessler is fitting a car of horses which he will ship to Birmingham, Ala., in a few weeks.
G. D. Tilton and sons were filling J. W. Hickman's barn with well matured hay from the Bartlett place Tuesday and Wednesday.
Wm. Rower was breaking horses the first day of the week.
Herman Ehrlich has purchased a house in Wa-Keeneey.
We heard some time ago that one of our young men had been charged for the corn his horse ate while at the home of his lassa; but we have heard since that it is a lie.
Moser & Hickman have enlarged their new stock of goods and seem to have quite an extensive trade for a new store.
The young people seem to be quite interested in the Endeavor society. We wish them grand success.

Colliery and Vicinity.

News scarce.
J. A. Milnek bought a quarter of land last week.
Week ago last Thursday was hunting day and twenty-one white tails lost their scalps.
Walter Swiggett says he could stand more cold weather than any man in this vicinity.
All right, we'll see when you take your whiskers off.
D. Van Seyoc, the Quinter merchant, bought E. Emig's place three miles south of Coliery and moved last week.
F. Kreht bought a new wind mill for irrigation.
Section forces were reduced to one man last week.
Our new Postmaster Hickman moved the office to the new store.
